COUNTRY Poland/Germany (Soviet Zona) Airfiold at Darmachen Lake; Miccellaneous Information on the Secsecia (Statian) Area PLACE EACH INFO Airfiold at Darmachen Lake; Miccellaneous Information on the Secsecia (Statian) Area PLACE EACH INFO AIRF OF INFO 1. Attached is a sketch showing Secsecia and surrounding towns. 2. The former German airfield at Darmachen Lake, north of the Secsecia-Altdarn radiusy, has been completely rebuilt and in now Poland's largest and best airfield for land and seaplanes. A great deal of material (regnir parts for planes, bonke, and gasoline) is brought to the field by radiusy and in large transport planes. About 150 bonbers and 30 fighters are stationed at the field. There are 1700 soldiers, rany of them Pollach. The 600-ran labor force is rade up of Germans the Live in Secsecia and Altdarm. The road to Altdarm has been repaired with timbers and is now usable. 3. The Russians have 150 tanks at the Krechouer field. These are least just beinds the Capture of German are Rionglis. There is also a division staff at the barracks (see sistebul). 4. There is one Polish infantry regiment in the barracks between Glambacker Forest and Secsecian, one at Alt-Tormay and Heu-Tormay, and another at the Jenotor flavage station. 5. At Clarter (see the of Secsecian), there is a Polish officers' school with about 80 students. 6. The Bussians have a great deal of material stored in the former German erruntion and material depot which is located I km. went of the Gelbenender railway station. 7. There is a large airfield 4 to 6 km. east of Pasesalk (35 km. NEW of Secsecian) on the north side of the highay to Secsecia.	. •				25
INFORMATION REPORT 25XIA COUNTRY Poland/Gerranty (Soviet Zona) Airfield at Dammachen Lake; Miscellaneous Information on the Succeedin (Statium) Area NO. OF PAGES 39803 NO. OF ENGLS 25XIA SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO. 1. Attached is a sketch showing Succeedin and surrounding towns. 25XIA 25XIA SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO. 25XIA 1. Attached is a sketch showing Succeedin and surrounding towns. 2. The former German sirfield at Dammachen Lake, north of the Succeedin-Alticars radius, has been completely rebuilt and in now Polund's largest and best sirfield for land and seaplanes. A great deal of material (regular parts for planes, boths, of the field by radiusy and in large temporer planes. About 150 benears and 30 fighters are stationed at the field. There are 1700 soldiers, many of them Polish. The 600-can labor force is made up of German who live in Succeedin ad Attdarm. The road to Attdarm has been repaired with timbers and is now usable. 3. The Buedans have 150 tanks at the Krechower Medd. These are lower functional here are Hongols. There is also a division staff at the barracks (see sketch). 4. There is one Polish infantry regiment in the barracks between Glankscker Forcest and Saccedin, one at Alt-Torney and Heu-Torney, and another it the Jendorf barracks. 5. At Glatfor (south of Sacsecin), there is a Polish officers' school with abonande radiusy station. 7. There is a large sirrifield 4 to 6 km. east of Pasevalk (35 km. NEW of Sacsecin) on the north side of the highway to Sacsecin.					25)
OUNTRY Poland/bermany (Soviet Zone) Airfield at Darmschen Lake; Miscellaneous Information on the Szezecin (Stattin) Area NO. OF PAGES 39803 NO. OF ENCLS. AUSTED BLOWN 25X1A 25X1X NO. OF ENCLS. SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO. 25X1X Supplement to Report No. 1. Attached is a sketch showing Szezecin and surrounding tours. 2. The former German airfield at Darmschen Lake, north of the Szezecin-Altdarn rathage, has been completely rebuilt and is now Poland's largest and best airfield for land and seaplanes. A great deal of resterial (reprise parts for planes, bottle, and gazoline) is brought to the field by rathage and larges transport planes. A bout 1700 saldiers, pany of their Polash. Harge transport planes. A bout 1700 saldiers, pany of their Polash. The Salescein-Altdarn rathage been nowed, as shown in the shatch. The Salescein-Altdarn rathage bridge has been repaired with timbers and is now usable. 3. The flanes have 150 table at the Evenbear field. These are leart just behind the Caphray barracks in Glambeolar Forest. The soldiers quartered here are longols. There is also a division staff at the barracks (see shatch). 4. There is one Polish infantry regiment in the barracks between Clambeolar Forest and Szezecin, one at Alt-Torney and Heu-Torney, and another at the lendorf barracks. 5. At Gistow (south of Szezecin), there is a Polish officere' school with about 80 students. 6. The Bussians have a great deal of material stored in the former German armunition and material depot which is located 1 km. west of the Gelbenseader always station. 7. There is a large sirfield & to 6 km. east of Pasesalk (25 km. New of Szezecin) on the north side of the highest to Szezecin.
Airfield at Damachen Lake; Miscellaneous Information on the Szczecin (Statiin) area NO. OF PAGES 1. Attached is a skytch showing Szczecin and surrounding towns. 25X1A 25X1X Supplement to REPORT NO. 25X1X Largest and best airfield at Damachen Lake, north of the Szczecin-Altdarm railway, has been completely rebuilt and is now Poland's largest and best airfield for Paul and sepalanes. A great deal of restorial (repair parts for planes, borbs, and gnoline) is brought to the field by railway and in large transport planes, About 150 benkers and 30 fighters are stationed at the field. There are 1700 soldiers, neary of them Polish. The 600-can labor force is rade up of Gorrans the live in S.czecin and Altdarm. The road to Altdarm has been repaired with thisbers and is now usable. 3. The Rusnians have 150 tanks at the Krechower field. There are leart just behind the Carbony burracks in Clambecker Forest. The soldiers quartered here are Hongels. There is also a division staff at the barracks (see sketch). 4. There is one Polish infantry regiment in the barracks between Glankecker Forest and Szczecin, one at Alt-Tormey and Heu-Torney, and another at the leadorf burracks. 5. At Castow (couth of Szczecin), there is a Polish officers' school with about 80 students. 6. The Russians have a great deal of material stored in the former German armunition and material depot which is located 1 km, west of the Gelbensonde realbury station.		INFORMATION	REPORT	25X1A
Attached is a sketch showing Secsecia and surrounding tours. 25X1X 1. Attached is a sketch showing Secsecia and surrounding tours. 25X1X 25X1X Supplement to Report No. 3UPPLEMENT TO REPORT No. 4. There are sketch beautifulat	COUNTRY	Poland/Germany (Soviet Zone)		DATE DISTR. 16 June 1948	25)
1. Attached is a sketch showing Secrecin and surrounding towns. 25X1X Supplement to Report No. 1. Attached is a sketch showing Secrecin and surrounding towns. 2. The former German airfield at Demmachen Lake, north of the Secrecin-Altdarm ratinary, has been completely rebuilt and is now Foland's largest and best airfield for land and seaplanes. A great deal of reterial (repair parts for planes, bonbs, and gazoline) is brought to the field by railway and in large transport planes. About 1700 solidiers, many of them Folish. The 600-cnn labor force is rade up of Germans the live in Secrecin and Altdarm. The read to Altdarm has been repaired with timbers and is now usable. 3. The Russians have 150 tanks at the Krechower field. These are kent just behind the Carbray burracks in Glambacker Forest. The solidiers quartered here are Mongols. There is also a division staff at the barracks (see sketch), one at Alt-Terney and Heu-Terney, and another it the Hendorf barracks. 5. At Glatow (south of Secrecin), there is a Polish officers' school with about 80 students. 6. The Russians have a great deal of material stored in the former German armunition and material depot which is located 1 km. west of the Gelbenomane refluey station. 7. There is a large airfield 4 to 6 km. east of Pasevalk (25 km. NEW of Secrecin) on the north side of the highway to Secrecin.	SUBJECT			NO. OF PAGES
1. Attached is a sketch showing Secsecin and surrounding towns. 2. The former German airfield at Demmethen Lake, north of the Secsecin-Altdarn railway, has been completely rebuilt and is now Polaries largest and best airfield for land and seeplanes. A great deal of material (repair parts for planes, bombe, and gasoline) is brought to the field by railway and in large transport planes, About 150 bombers and 30 fighters are stationed at the field. There are 1700 soldiers, many of them Polish. The GOC-ran labor force is raide up of Germans she live in Secsecin and Altdarm. The road to Altdarm has been noved, as shown in the sketch. The Secsecin-Altdarn railway bridge has been repaired with timbers and is now usable. 3. The Russians have 150 tanks at the Krechover field. These are kent just behind the Carbray barracks in Glambacker Forest. The soldiers quartered here are Mongols. There is also a division staff at the barracks (see sketch). 4. There is one Polish infantry regiment in the barracks between Glambacker Forest and Secsecin, one at Alt-Torney and Heu-Torney, and another at the Hendorf barracks. 5. At Güstow (south of Secsecin), there is a Folish officers' school with about 80 students. 6. The Russians have a great deal of material stored in the former German armunition and material depot which is located 1 km. west of the Gelbensande railway station. 7. There is a large airfield 4 to 6 km. east of Pasewalk (35 km. NEW of Secsecin) on the north side of the highway to Seczecin.	PI ACE	information on the Szczecin (Jan an Fusia	- I
1. Attached is a sketch showing Secsecin and surrounding towns. 2. The former German airfield at Demmethen Lake, north of the Secsecin-Altdarn railway, has been completely rebuilt and is now Polaries largest and best airfield for land and seeplanes. A great deal of material (repair parts for planes, bombe, and gasoline) is brought to the field by railway and in large transport planes, About 150 bombers and 30 fighters are stationed at the field. There are 1700 soldiers, many of them Polish. The GOC-ran labor force is raide up of Germans she live in Secsecin and Altdarm. The road to Altdarm has been noved, as shown in the sketch. The Secsecin-Altdarn railway bridge has been repaired with timbers and is now usable. 3. The Russians have 150 tanks at the Krechover field. These are kent just behind the Carbray barracks in Glambacker Forest. The soldiers quartered here are Mongols. There is also a division staff at the barracks (see sketch). 4. There is one Polish infantry regiment in the barracks between Glambacker Forest and Secsecin, one at Alt-Torney and Heu-Torney, and another at the Hendorf barracks. 5. At Güstow (south of Secsecin), there is a Folish officers' school with about 80 students. 6. The Russians have a great deal of material stored in the former German armunition and material depot which is located 1 km. west of the Gelbensande railway station. 7. There is a large airfield 4 to 6 km. east of Pasewalk (35 km. NEW of Secsecin) on the north side of the highway to Seczecin.	ACQUIRED		A Librar	CLISTED BELOW) 25X1 1 sketc	sh
 Attached is a sketch showing Secrecin and surrounding towns. The former German airfield at Darmschen Lake, north of the Secrecin-Altdarn railway, has been completely rebuilt and is now Foland's largest and best atrifield for land and seaplanes. A great deal of material (repair parts for planes, benche, and gasoline) is brought to the field by railway and in large transport planes. About 150 benchers and 30 fighters are stationed at the field. There are 1700 soldiers, many of them Polish. The 600-can labor force is rade up of Germans who live in Speccin and Altdarm. The road to Altdarm has been moved, as shown in the sketch. The Secretin-Altdarm railway bridge has been repaired with timbers and is now usable. The Russians have 150 tanks at the Krechowar field. These are known just behind the Cambray barracks in Glambecker Forest. The soldiers quartered here are Mongols. There is also a division staff at the barracks (see sketch). There is one Polish infantry regiment in the barracks between Glambecker Forest and Secrecin, one at Alt-Torney and New-Torney, and another at the Nemborf barracks. At Gistow (south of Secrecin), there is a Polish officers' school with about 80 students. The Russians have a great deal of material stored in the former German armunition and material depot which is located 1 km. west of the Gelbensender railway station. There is a large airfield 4 to 6 km. east of Pasewalk (35 km. MBW of Secrecin) on the north side of the highway to Secrecin. 	DATE OF INFO	25X
 The former German airfield at Dammschen Lake, north of the Szczecin-Altdarn railway, has been completely rebuilt and is now Poland's largest and best airfield for land and seaplanes. A great deal of material (repair parts for planes, bombs, and gasoline) is brought to the field by railway and in large transport planes. About 150 bombers and 30 flighters are stationed at the field. There are 1700 soldiers, many of them Polish. The 600-man labor force is made up of Germans who live in Szczecin and Altdarm. The road to Altdarm has been noved, as shown in the sketch. The Szczecin-Altdarm railway bridge has been repaired with timbers and is now usable. The Russians have 150 tanks at the Krechower field. These are kept just behind the Cambray barracks in Glambecker Forest. The soldiers quartered here are Mongols. There is also a division staff at the barracks (see sketch). There is one Polish infantry regiment in the barracks between Glambecker Forest and Szczecin, one at Alt-Torney and Neu-Torney, and another at the Mendorf barracks. At Güstow (south of Szczecin), there is a Polish officers' school with about 80 students. The Russians have a great deal of material stored in the former German armunition and material depot which is located 1 km. west of the Gelbensande railway station. There is a large airfield 4 to 6 km. east of Pascualk (35 km. MNW of Szczecin) on the north side of the highway to Szczecin. 			25/1/	REPORT NO.
Altdarm railway, has been completely rebuilt and is now Poland's largest and best airfield for land and seaplanes. A great deal of material (repair parts for planes, bombs, and gasoline) is brought to the field by railway and in large transport planes. About 150 bombers and 30 fighters are stationed at the field. There are 1700 soldiers, many of them Polish. The 600-man labor force is made up of Germans who live in Spaceoin and Altdarm. The road to Altdarm has been moved, as shown in the sketch. The Szczecin-Altdarm railway bridge has been repaired with timbers and is now usable. 3. The Russians have 150 tanks at the Krechower field. These are kent just behind the Cambray barracks in Glambecker Forest. The soldiers quartered here are Mongols. There is also a division staff at the barracks (see sketch). 4. There is one Polish infantry regiment in the barracks between Glambecker Forest and Szczecin, one at Alt-Torney and Neu-Torney, and another at the Mendorf barracks. 5. At Glatow (south of Szczecin), there is a Polish officers' school with about 80 students. 6. The Russians have a great deal of material stored in the former German armunition and material depot which is located 1 km. west of the Gelbensande railway station. 7. There is a large airfield 4 to 6 km. east of Pasewalk (35 km. WWW of Szczecin) on the north side of the highway to Szczecin.		Attached is a sketch showing	Szczecin and sur	rounding towns.
just behind the Cambray barracks in Glambecker Forest. The soldiers quartered here are Mongols. There is also a division staff at the barracks (see sketch). 4. There is one Polish infantry regiment in the barracks between Glambecker Forest and Szczecin, one at Alt-Torney and Neu-Torney, and another at the Mendorf barracks. 5. At Glatow (south of Szczecin), there is a Polish officers' school with about 80 students. 6. The Russians have a great deal of material stored in the former German armunition and material depot which is located 1 km. west of the Gelbensande railway station. 7. There is a large airfield 4 to 6 km. east of Pasewalk (35 km. WNW of Szczecin) on the north side of the highway to Szczecin.	డం	Altdarm railway, has been complargest and best airfield for material (repair parts for pluto the field by railway and is bombers and 30 fighters are soldiers, many of them Polish of Germans who live in Szczecheen moved, as shown in the si	pletely rebuilt land and seapla anes, bombs, and n large transportationed at the The 600-man lin and Altdarm.	and is now Poland's nes. A great deal of gasoline) is brought t planes. About 150 field. There are 1700 abor force is made up The road to Altdamm has ecin-Altdamm railway bridge
Forest and Szczecin, one at Alt-Torney and Neu-Torney, and another at the Wendorf barracks. 5. At Güstow (south of Szczecin), there is a Polish officers' school with about 80 students. 6. The Russians have a great deal of material stored in the former German armunition and material depot which is located 1 km. west of the Gelbensande raflway station. 7. There is a large airfield 4 to 6 km. east of Pasewalk (35 km. WNW of Szczecin) on the north side of the highway to Szczecin.	3.	just behind the Cambray barraquartered here are Mongols.	oke in Glambecke:	r Forest. The soldiers about 80 students. 6. The Russians have a great deal of material stored in the former German armunition and material depot which is located 1 km. west of the Gelbensande railway station. 7. There is a large airfield 4 to 6 km. east of Pasevalk (35 km. WNW of Szczecin) on the north side of the highway to Szczecin.				division soul at our armunition and material depot which is located 1 km. west of the Gelbensande railway station. 7. There is a large airfield 4 to 6 km. east of Pasewalk (35 km. WNW of Szczecin) on the north side of the highway to Szczecin.	4.	Forest and Szczecin, one at A		barracks between Glankecker
Szczecin) on the north side of the highway to Szczecin.		Forest and Szczecin, one at A the Mendorf barracks. At Güstow (south of Szczecin)	lt-Torney and Ne	barracks between Glambecker u-Torney, and another at
	5.	Forest and Szczecin, one at A the Mendorf barracks. At Güstow (south of Szczecin) about 80 students. The Russians have a great deal armunition and material depot	lt-Torney and Ne , there is a Pol l of material st	barracks between Glambecker u-Torney, and another at ish officers; school with ored in the former German
now employs 800 men. The ammunition is shipped to Szczecin. The factory is 4 km. SE of Henkenhagen in the direction of Weistenthin, east of the Goliszeno-Henkenhagen railway.	5 . 6.	Forest and Szczecin, one at A the Wendorf barracks. At Güstow (south of Szczecin) about 80 students. The Russians have a great deal armunition and material depot bensande railway station. There is a large airfield 4 to	there is a Poll of material straining is located to 6 km. east of 1	barracks between Glambecker u-Torney, and another it ish officers; school with ored in the former German d 1 km. west of the Gel-	. 25)
75Y1 / I	5. 6. 7. 8.	Forest and Szczecin, one at A the Mendorf barracks. At Güstow (south of Szczecin) about 80 students. The Russians have a great deal armunition and material depot bensande railway station. There is a large airfield 4 to Szczecin) on the north side of the former German armunition in now employs 800 men. The armunis 4 km. SE of Henkenhagen in	there is a Poll of material st which is located to 6 km. east of the highway to factory at Goliss mition is shipped the direction of	barracks between Glambecker u-Torney, and another at ish officers; school with ored in the former German d 1 km. west of the Gel-Pasewalk (35 km. WNW of Szczecin. zevo (Gülzow), Pomerania, d to Szczecin. The factory f Woistenthin, east of the	25)
CLASSIFICATION SECRET	5. 6. 7.	Forest and Szczecin, one at A the Mendorf barracks. At Güstow (south of Szczecin) about 80 students. The Russians have a great deal armunition and material depot bensande railway station. There is a large airfield 4 to Szczecin) on the north side of the former German armunition in now employs 800 men. The armunis 4 km. SE of Henkenhagen in Goliszeno-Henkenhagen railway.	there is a Poll of material standard of km. east of the highway to factory at Golismitton is shipped the direction of	barracks between Glambecker u-Torney, and another it ish officers' school with ored in the former German d 1 km. west of the Gel-Pasewalk (35 km. WNW of Szczecin. zewo (Gilzow), Pomerania, d to Szczecin. The factory	25)

Lendorf'

25X1 25X1

Airfield